A Personal Perspective by Daniel J. Cross

This infographic represents the personal beliefs of the founder, Daniel J. Cross. It is offered not as a definitive or universally accepted timeline, but as a devotional tool designed to inspire praise, worship, and awe of God's sovereign plan throughout history.

Beliefs regarding Creation, End Times, and God's unfolding work in history are deeply personal and often vary among sincere followers of Jesus Christ. These matters invite careful study, humble prayer, and thoughtful meditation upon Scripture. Each believer is encouraged to seek God's wisdom and arrive at their own convictions, always in the spirit of unity and love.

The goal of this timeline is inspiration — not division. May it point your heart to Jesus Christ, our blessed hope.
